

Dear Warden:

Below please find a Warden Message from the U.S. Embassy in La Paz, Bolivia. Please share this warden message with any U.S. citizens in Bolivia with whom you have contact.

WARDEN MESSAGE
U.S. EMBASSY LA PAZ, BOLIVIA
December 30, 2010

This warden message informs U.S. citizens traveling to and residing in Bolivia of possible demonstrations and roadblocks affecting travel nationwide.

In response to a gas price hike announced by the Bolivian government on December 26, demonstrations and roadblocks are anticipated in major cities and roadways throughout Bolivia on December 30 and 31. Transportation unions have also announced a 24-hour strike beginning December 30. The U.S. Embassy expects the protests to particularly affect the downtown areas of La Paz, El Alto, Santa Cruz, Oruro, and Cochabamba.

The U.S. Embassy urges you to exercise caution when traveling within Bolivia. If you do decide to travel, you should verify your routes and check news reports prior to departing for updates on possible protest and blockade locations.

The U.S. Embassy reminds you that demonstrations and road blockades are not unusual in Bolivia and can emerge with little or no prior notice. Even though they might be intended to be peaceful they can turn confrontational between security forces, demonstrators, and bystanders, and escalate into violence. We urge you to avoid the areas of demonstrations and to exercise caution if you are within the vicinity of any protests. If you find yourself in the vicinity of a large gathering, it is recommended you leave the area immediately for your own safety.

The U.S. Embassy encourages you to register and update your contact information at the U.S. Embassy in La Paz and/or the U.S. consular agencies in Cochabamba and Santa Cruz, Bolivia.
