

Dear Warden:

Below please find a Warden Message from the U.S. Embassy in La Paz, Bolivia. Please share this warden message with any U.S. citizens in Bolivia with whom you have contact.

WARDEN MESSAGE
U.S. EMBASSY LA PAZ, BOLIVIA
August 31, 2010

This warden message informs U.S. citizens traveling to and residing in Bolivia of protests today against the Bolivian Government in La Paz and Cochabamba.

La Paz: A large group of union workers are organizing a protest against Minister of Economy, Hector Arce. They are currently gathering at the Uyustus Market. The crowd is expected to reach 20,000 people and will travel down Mariscal Santa Cruz to Plaza Murillo.

Cochabamba: A related group, with similar motives, has announced they will march on the Oficina de Servicio de Impuestos Nacionales and the Oficinas de Aduana in Cochabamba.

The Embassy warns U.S. citizens there is a chance these protests could turn violent.

U.S. Citizens are advised to avoid these areas and expect traffic delays in and around these cities.

The U.S. Department of State issued a Travel Alert for Bolivia on August 12, 2010 to alert U.S. citizens of the unstable social and security situation in several regions across the country. U.S. citizens are encouraged to review the travel alert on the Embassy's website or at <http://travel.state.gov>.

U.S. citizens are reminded that demonstrations and road blockades are not unusual in Bolivia, and even though they might be intended to be peaceful they can turn confrontational between security forces, demonstrators, and bystanders, and escalate into violence. U.S. citizens are urged to avoid the areas of demonstrations and to exercise caution if within the vicinity of any protests. If you find yourself in the vicinity of a large gathering, it is recommended you leave the area immediately for your own safety.

U.S. citizens residing or traveling in Bolivia are encouraged to register and update their contact information at the U.S. Embassy in La Paz and/or the U.S. consular agencies in Cochabamba and Santa Cruz, Bolivia. Registration may be done online and can be done in advance of travel. Information on registering may be found at the Department of State's Consular Affairs website: <https://travelregistration.state.gov>.

For the latest security information, U.S. citizens traveling abroad should regularly monitor the Department's internet website at <http://travel.state.gov> where the current worldwide caution, travel warnings and travel alerts can be found. Additional information is available in the country specific information for Bolivia at <http://travel.state.gov> and on the embassy web page at <http://bolivia.usembassy.gov>.

Current information on travel and security in Bolivia may be obtained from the Department of State by calling 1-888-407-4747 within the United States, or, from overseas, 1-202-501-4444. These numbers are available from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday (except U.S. federal holidays).
